In Baker Neighborhood—Followers of Other Political Schemes Seem Fairly Qualified, Figuratively, According to Straw Ballot

United Press Service
BAKER, Ore., Feb. 9.—According to a straw ballot conducted by the Baker Herald, Roosevelt and Bryan supporters are more active in this section of Eastern Oregon than the followers of either La Follette, Taft, Wilson, Harmon or Clark.
Roosevelt got 776 votes, while La Follette got but 252, and Taft 77, as the republican choice here for president. Democrats gave Bryan 257, Wilson 174, Clark 57 and Harmon 22.
With Bryan and Roosevelt eliminated, it was stated that La Follette and Wilson would have led the tickets by an overwhelming vote.

TAFT'S BORDER POWER MAY SOON BE MUCH INCREASED

Legislation Proposed to Give Nation's Executive More Authority to Protect Citizens Living Along Texas-Mexico Line

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 9.—Legislation to give to the president added power to protect Americans along the Mexican border, in case of another Mexican outbreak, is to be introduced in the house soon by members of the foreign affairs committee. Representative Foster is formulating proposed laws that will meet the view of the president and state department as to the powers that should be given the executive head of the department.

Representative Smith of Texas today urged the passage of his resolution to instruct the state department to press claims of Americans at El Paso and Douglas who were injured or suffered loss on American soil from stray bullets from the battles of Jauras and Agua Prieta.

SAVANT EXILED TO GELID, LONELY WASTE OF SIBERIA

Famous Member of Russian Socialist Party, Professor of Philosophy, Taken Journey of Six Months to Reach Place of Servitude

United Press Service
ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 9.—Sentenced to five years' exile in what is probably the coldest and loneliest part of Siberia, because he was a member of the socialist party, Dr. Vladimir M. Sensinow, a famous professor of philosophy here, has reached his destination after a journey of almost six months, according to a report received from the governor of Yakutsk.

Sensinow was tried secretly and the findings of the secret court were approved by the late M. Stolypin.
Sensinow, according to the report, has been sent to Ruskoje Ustje, a village of five huts, at the mouth of the Indigirka River, on the Arctic sea, where night is months long in winter, and where the cold frequently reaches 70 degrees below zero. It is the most northerly point to which a prisoner has ever been sent in Siberia, being 1,200 miles away from the nearest civilized post.

One request was granted Sensinow, that he might take with him instruments for observation and meteorological work. This, his friends say, will prevent him from going mad.

GIRL DIES OF FRIGHT AS POLICE COME ON SCENE

Had Been Taken From Juvenile Court by Farmer, Who Rescued Her Room Door at Night—Investigating Officers Excite Her Fatally

United Press Service
BERLIN, Feb. 9.—A pathetic case of an ignorant young girl dying from fright by the appearance of the police came to light here in the district court in the trial of Henry Langer and wife.
The girl victim, a niece of the couple, was given to a farmer by the juvenile court. The girl wrote her aunt that she would kill herself unless she was taken away, as the farmer beset her room door at night with persistent advances.
Langer took the girl home. Police called to investigate, and the girl ran to the attic, where she died of fright. Without investigating the girl's story of the farmer's abuse the court fined Langer and his wife.

ARGUMENT IS BEGUN IN CASE OF KENEWICK BANK

AGAINST MERRILL RAYCHER—THE PLAINTIFF'S ATTORNEY CLAIMS HIS SIDE HAD TRUBLE TO TRACE DEFENDANT

Argument in the case of the First National bank of Kennewick, Wash., vs. Joshua Swindler and wife, who have a homestead on the hill near Merrill, was begun before the jury in district court this morning. Attorney E. L. Elliott opened for the plaintiff and contended that the bank, under the law, had a right to take money deposited by Swindler to apply on his notes when the notes became due. He said Swindler had shown aptness in answering questions of his own attorney, but not in responses to Attorney S. Z. Henderson, counsel for the bank.
Attorney Herbert S. Crane for Swindler, told the jury that the plaintiff had tried to "trap" that ignorant old German," and failed, and insisted that L. E. Johnson, president of the bank had failed to answer Crane's questions readily, although he had been able to answer questions of Mr. Henderson promptly. He insisted that Johnson often admitted having made mistakes in his testimony regarding the Swindler transactions.
Last evening, when W. E. Ditzell, former First National bank cashier of this city, was asked whether Swindler had not carried his account as Jack Swindler, admitting that his right name was Joshua Swindler, but that he had had trouble with the bank at Kennewick. He replied in the affirmative. Attorney Henderson insisted that the defendant had never notified the First National of Kennewick that he was going out of the state, and that the bank had had trouble to locate him.

Abel Ady of Midland, president of the Klamath Water Users' Association, is a visitor in the city today.

L. J. Bowman of Bonanza, who has been in the city for a few days, left this morning for Ashland on a business trip.

Woman Finally Recovers From Nervous Breakdown

Impoverished nerves destroy many people before their time. Often before a sufferer realizes what the trouble is, he is on the verge of a complete nervous breakdown. It is of the utmost importance to keep your nervous system in good condition, as the nerves are the source of all bodily power. Mrs. Anna Kuntz, 211 Mechanic St., Pueblo, Colo., says:

"For many years I suffered from nervous prostration; I was unable to do any house work and doctors failed to help me. Remedies I tried from druggists did not do me a particle of good. A neighbor told my husband about Dr. Miles' Nervine and he procured a bottle. After the first few doses I showed a marked improvement and after taking two bottles I was entirely cured. I have been perfectly well for years and cannot praise Dr. Miles' Nervine too highly."

If you are troubled with loss of appetite, poor digestion, weakness, inability to sleep; if you are in a general run down condition and unable to bear your part of the daily grind of life, you need something to strengthen your nerves. You may not realize what is the matter with you, but that is no reason why you should delay treatment.

Dr. Miles' Nervine has proven its value in nervous disorders for thirty years, and merits a trial, no matter how many other remedies have failed to help you. Sold by all druggists. If next bottle fails to benefit your money is returned. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
